Language Arts:

We have a busy week ahead. You have your first draft of your WE Talk due on Thursday. You also have Reading Response #5 due on Friday. We'll spend the early part of the week going over the lead and conclusion of your speech. The end of the week will be spent doing Peer Conferences on your first draft. We also have our next WE Talk activity on Wednesday this week. Prepare a tongue twister to share with us on Wednesday.

Wednesday- Tongue Twister Day

Thursday- First Draft of WE Talk DUE

Friday- Reading Response #5 DUE

Math:

We are starting the Ratio and Proportion unit this week! We will review what you have done with ratios so far and learn some new types of ratios. We will use them to solve problems and learn how to write proportions to solve problems. As usual we will continue with goal work and I will eventually create a second set of number topics so you will not run out of things to work on!

Homework due on:

Friday - Ratio HW due

SCIENCE:

This week in science we will learn about the 3 different types of galaxies, as well as hear all about the different stages in the life cycle of a star. We will review the planets in our solar system and their data and have a planet quiz on Friday.

Homework: prepare for Planet Quiz on Friday (you must have the order of planets memorized!)

Social Studies:

This week we'll talk a little more about bias and the role of media. We'll also spend our activity time talking about reading articles to identify facts vs. opinions. You have research due on Friday for discussion.

Friday- Discussion Group- have your research ready to share
