You'll receive your WE Talk back on Tuesday with feedback. Your job is to revise it for Friday when your second draft is due. We also have two activities this week. You have your poetry due on Tuesday. You need to find or create a poem related to your topic/message and prepare to present it to the class. We'll also do the Speed Limit activity this week which is designed to help you learn about the appropriate speed for speaking when addressing your audience.

Tuesday- Poetry Recital Day
Friday- Second Draft DUE

Math:

This week we will finish up multiplicative comparisons and begin unit rates. If we have time we will start proportions! You will also get Ratio Quiz #1 back this week.

Homework due on:

Wednesday: Blog post about Geometry due

Friday: Unit Rate HW due

SCIENCE:

This week in science students will share their 2-3 minute presentations about their particular spacecraft or mission. We will also read a couple of current event articles to discuss in class. We will watch the WHEN WE LEFT EARTH video about the space shuttle program. We will also do some reviewing for the final unit test, which will be the week we return from the holiday break.

HOMEWORK:

Review sheet (given in class on Monday) due Friday

Social Studies:

This week we'll wrap up our work on media bias. The lesson this week will focus on propaganda. In the activity we'll start watching an movie adaptation of the George Orwell novel, Animal Farm, to reinforce our work on propaganda, media bias, and the importance of our US Constitution.
