Announcements & Upcoming

Events:

Tuesday, February 2nd- School
Deliberative Session 7PM

Wednesday, February 3rd- WE Talk
Main Stage Event at NHS 6PM

Language Arts:

We'll start the week with practicing and preparing for our WE Talk Main Stage event on Wednesday night. We'll also prepare for your United Nations quiz on Wednesday. Use the study guide you filled out last week and if you're missing anything you can find it on the 7th Grade Blog at grade7team.edublogs.com

Your main homework this week is to prepare for and then attend the Main Stage event. It's going to be a great night and a wonderful showcase of all your ideas, perspectives, and voices. I can't wait!

Wednesday- UN History and Function Quiz

Wednesday night- We Talk Main Stage- 6PM at NHS

Math:

We will continue to work on our NYC Scale building project this week. We should have our maps and hopefully our 2D scale drawings done by Friday. The homework due on Friday will be to write four questions for the Unit test and solve them. The topics on the unit test will be: ratio, value of the ratio, multiplicative comparison, rates, unit rates, and proportions.

Homework due on:

Friday - 4 test questions and solutions

SCIENCE:

This week we will continue learning about the different properties of light, additive and subtractive colors, how light reflects and refracts, the electromagnetic spectrum, and a bit about the eye. We will wrap up the unit this week. Students can expect a review session on Monday, February 8th and the Light Exam on Tuesday, February 9th.

Homework:

Review sheet passed out Thursday, study over the weekend!!

Social Studies:

We're one week away from the NH Primary. We'll spend some time in activity this week talking about the election process and the NH Primary. Remember, we'll also get a tour of the voting area next week!

In the lesson this week we'll focus on how banks make money and help the economy.

Research is due on Friday.

ESPAÑOL: "El tiempo todo lo cura." (Time cures all.)
