

7TH GRADE WEEKLY OVERVIEW

Week of February 8th-12th Announcements & Upcoming

Events:

Tuesday, February 9th - Presidential
Primary Voting

Friday, February 12th - 7th & 8th Grade
Dance 7-9PM

Language Arts:

This week we'll further our study of the United Nations by participating in a small debate about a fictional scenario. We'll also talk about how we can get to know another country ahead of choosing our countries at the end of this week.

Wednesday will be a workshop day to work on updating, adding to, and polishing your blogs. Your homework will be to complete any work you don't get done during that workshop by Friday.

You'll also have two Thank You notes due on Wednesday that we'll discuss and begin in class on Monday.

Wednesday- Two Thank You Notes DUE

Friday- Finalize Blog Updates and Add New Blog Post

Math:

We will finish up our NYC Scale Building project this week. By the end of class Tuesday your maps and one 2D view of your building is due. By the end of class on Wednesday the second 2D view is due, and by the end of class on Friday the file containing your 3D plan is due in my hand-in folder and the group's calculations to me. The Ratio unit test will be next week and it does include scale! The topics were on last week's overview. Homework this week will be to study. Go back to old quizzes, homeworks, and classworks and redo the problems!

SCIENCE:

Snow day update - Tuesday will be a study day with the LIGHT ENERGY test on Wednesday. We will start our physics unit, FORCE & MOTION, later in the week.

HOMEWORK: Study for Wednesday's test

Social Studies:

We have a special event this Tuesday with a tour of the voting area from Town Moderator Mr. Bill Boesch.

We'll spend the rest of the week working on looking at the final results of the NH Primary and continuing our financial simulation.

ESPAÑOL: "Dime con quién andas y yo te diré quien eres." (You are the company you keep.)

Español de la Comunidad (Mon): Reader's Workshop or Lucha Libre

Miércoles (Wed): Lección: Using ACABAR DE + INFINITIVE to Say What You Just Did

Viernes (Fri): Actividades Mixtas