Language Arts:

This week we'll wrap up our NYC presentations and continue preparing for our NYC trip. You'll have a Travel Journal entry due on Tuesday. You'll also have a final Reading Response due on Friday. We'll talk about the specific requirements on Tuesday in class. You'll also receive your This I Believe 2nd Draft back by the end of the week. The final draft will be due next week.

Tuesday- Travel Journal DUE

Friday- Reading Response DUE

Math:

This week we will be working more with linear equations by creating tables, graphing, and writing 2 variable equations. You will get your single variable quizzes back and there will be a linear homework due on Friday.

Homework due on:

Friday - Linear HW due

SCIENCE:

Last week's focus was on non-renewable energy sources. This week will be on the many renewable energy sources available.

Homework: Review sheet due Tuesday

Social Studies:

We have two weeks of these investments left (including this week!). Our groups will be wrapping things up this week and next. We'll also have shorter periods on Tuesday and Thursday this week because of Smarter Balanced testing. You'll share your experience in your discussion groups on Friday.
