PORTFOLIO SHARE & DC INFO MEETING

Monday, June 13th- 5:30-7PM

Your family should have signed up for the first session (5:30-6:00) or the second session (6:30-7:00PM) Either way, everyone should attend the DC information meeting at 6:30PM. We'll also show the NYC Slide Show that night.

Language Arts:

Monday we'll finish up your blogs and make final preparations for your Portfolio Share Monday night. We'll also fill out and End of Term Reflection. These will be completed in class on Monday.

Don't forget- library books were due back last Friday so bring them in immediately! The only exception is if you've taken books out as part of the Summer Check Out Program.

Math:

This week you will get your Algebra and Number System tests back. If you have any questions, please come ask me! We will analyze the data we collected walking blindfolded down the hall using mean, median, mode, box plots, and standard deviation. Homework this week is to finish any outstanding assignments!

SCIENCE:

This week we will finish up current events. We will also build virtual series & parallel circuits, making note of how the resistance (ohms), current (amps) and voltage (volts) changes.
